Study Guide for Bible Reading

Luke 24:13-48

- What were the two people speaking about on the road? What did Jesus ask them? How did they reply?
- How did they describe what had recently happened? How did they describe their hopes and expectations? How did they describe the news they had received?
- What did Jesus say to them? How did He describe what they should have known? What did He use to explain these things to them? What does this tell us about the meaning of the Old Testament?
- After Jesus had revealed His identity to them, how did they describe their reaction when He was teaching them the Scriptures? What can we learn from this? How should we respond?
- How did the disciples respond when Jesus appeared to them? How did Jesus assure them?
- What did Jesus say He had told them while He was with them earlier? What did He teach them about the content and significance of the Old Testament? What did He say was the consequence of all of these things?
- Based on these two episodes, what did Jesus think about the Old Testament and its relationship to Himself? Why is that significant for the reasons we should study the Old Testament? How should we respond?

1 Corinthians 10:1-11

- What did Paul want his readers to know concerning how the Old Testament stories applied to Christ and His New Testament people?
- How did Paul say the prior history served as examples? What is the purpose for this?
- Why did Paul say these things were written down? How does this apply to us? How should we respond?
