Micah: Zealot for True Covenant Living

Micah's Message

- What does the textbook say about the “tension” in Micah’s life? What point was being made about the nation of Israel and about current leadership?
- What were the problems with the political and religious leadership of Micah’s time? What were they doing wrong? Why was God displeased with this? What can we learn from this?
- Describe the encouraging words of Micah, according to the textbook. What does this tell us about God’s plans? How were they fulfilled?
- What point does the textbook make about the courtroom imagery in Micah? How do the mountains figure in this? What advice did Micah give the people in light of this? What verdict does Micah proclaim about the nation?
- How did Micah find hope, according to the textbook? What can we learn from this?
- How did Micah end this book? What did he pray for? Why? How does this textbook suggest these things can help us in our current situations? How should we respond?
