Study Guide for Textbook chapter 34

Malachi: Give God Your Best!

Malachi's Message

- What does the textbook say about the general message of this book and its relationship with the books of Ezra and Nehemiah? How does this help us understand the content and message of this book?
- How did God use Jacob and Esau to illustrate His love for His people? What does this tell us about His love? How should we respond?
- What does Malachi say against the priests? Why? How does he teach about proper honor and worship? What should we learn from this? How does it apply?
- What does Malachi say about marriage, according to the textbook? Why did he need to address this at that time? How should we respond?
- What does Malachi say about the way God deals with sin and His timing? How does the textbook say this was demonstrated in the New Testament? Why is this significant?
- What does Malachi teach about tithing? How does this inform our understanding of our property in general? How should we respond?
- How did Malachi end his book, according to the textbook? Describe the two things Malachi communicated and how they apply to us today?
